

Canberk Ulaş - Biography

Canberk Ulaş is a professional duduk player and educator.

He studied in Istanbul Technical University Turkish Music State Conservatory. He studied the duduk with Suren Asaduryan and Özcan Gül. Ulaş joined Erkan Oğur's and Derya Türkan's workshops, who are two prominent representatives of Anatolian music.

It is possible to hear both Turkish (Anatolian) and Armenian folk and also Ottoman classical music modes and patterns in his playing style. Ulaş has contributed to many albums and music productions with his duduk through his career. He composed music for quartet (duduk, piano, double bass, drums) and founded the band "Canberk Ulaş Quartet" in 2015, and, he released his album titled "Telafi" with this band in 2017.

Ulaş continues working on his projects, giving concerts in different parts of the world and giving online duduk lessons to duduk lovers from all over the world.